LONDON, July 12.

ON Monday laſt, at half an Hour after two in the Afternoon, their Royal Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs of Wales, arrived at Southborough in Kent; (God be praiſed) in perfect Health, where the Miniſter and chief Inhabitants of Tunbridge-Wells, were ready to receive them, to the Number of Two Hundred all on Horſeback, with Cockades (Orange and White) in their Hats; when a Gentleman (at their Deſire) made the following Addreſs to their Royal Highneſſes.

May it pleaſe your Royal Highneſſes,

TO permit me, in the Name of the Miniſter and principal Inhabitants of Tunbridge Wells, to congratulate your Royal Highneſſes on your Arrival in this Country, a Country ever zealous for its Liberties, and remarkable for its Loyalty. The many Bleſſings we enjoy under his Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, muſt render every Branch of his Royal Houſe moſt dear to us, whilſt there remains a Senſe of Gratitude and Duty.

Therefore 'tis our ſincereſt Wiſh, that thoſe amiable Pledges of your Royal Loves, which the Almighty has bleſt you with, may beget a long Race of Kings and Heroes, till time ſhall be no more.

To which his Royal Highneſs was pleaſed to give the following Anſwer.

Gentlemen,

We return you many Thanks for this kind Addreſs.

Their Royal Highneſſes then proceeded to Tunbridge-Wells, and at their Arrival were ſaluted with twenty-one Guns from the Grove upon the Common, by Order of the Inhabitants, accompanied with repeated Huzza's. At 7 o'Clock his Royal Highneſs came from his Lodgings at Mount Sion to the Walks, when the Guns again fired at his alighting from his Coach, and half an Hour after her Royal Highneſs appeared upon the Walks, and was alſo ſaluted with the Guns from the Queen's Grove. In the Evening, the Inhabitants of the Place illuminated their Houſes with Candles; the Walks and Well were alſo illuminated which made a glorious Appearance. At Night there was a triple Diſcharge of the Guns from the Queen's Grove, and a great Number of Fireworks were played off by the Inhabitants in the above Place, and four Barrels of Beer given away to the Populace. Their Royal Highneſſes expreſſed great Satisfaction at ſuch a Reception.

Laſt Week an Expreſs was diſpatched to Glouceſterſhire, to the Right Honourable the Earl of Granard, Vice-Admiral of the Blue; but we do not hear that his Lordſhip is yet come to Town.

Yeſterday Edward Vernon Eſq; Member in the laſt Parliament for Penryn in Cornwall, was by his Majeſty appointed Vice Admiral of the Blue Squadron of England, and was ſworn in at the Admiralty Office accordingly.

He is to ſail with all Expedition with a Squadron of nine Ships of War for the Weſt-Indies.

We hear that there will be three more new Admirals conſtituted in a few Days.

CHARLES-TOWN, Oct. 27.

On Tueſday laſt the 30th of Oct. being his Majeſty's Birth Day, the Regiment of St. Philip's Charleſtown, commanded by the Honourable Coll. John Fenwicke was reviewed by his Honour the Lieutenant Governor at the Parade near Broughton's Battery, and made a very handſome Appearance, and after having gone through the uſual Exerciſe, firſt in diſtinct Companies & afterwards in Battalion. The Lieutenant Governor did the Officers of the Regiment the Honour to invite them into the Fort to drink his Majeſty's Health under the Diſcharge of the Cannon: After which the Lieutenant Governor and ſeveral other Gentlemen accepted an Invitation and favour'd the Officers with their Company at Dinner, where his Majeſty's Health was drank (in Battalion) with that of the Prince and Princeſs of Wales, the Duke of Argyle, Lord Wilmington, Sir Robert Walpole and other Perſons of Diſtinction; and the Day was concluded with great Marks of Pleaſure and Satisfaction on the happy Occaſion of it: But what added greatly to the general Joy, was, the Numbers of Men on the Field beyond what was expected, and the healthy Countenances of the Regiment after the late great Illness, with which the Town had been afflicted; from whence 'tis certain the Distemper has been for some time past abated, & which (we thank God) is now very well over
